Young Leaders Society
United Way of the Midlands

ABOUT

United Way of the Midlands' Young Leaders Society (YLS) is a compassionate group of community-minded, young professionals who are working to create a positive impact in the Midlands by supporting the mission of United Way.

The mission of United Way of the Midlands is simple: we unite people and resources to improve the quality of life in the Midlands. We do this by providing access to quality health care, helping families and individuals achieve financial stability and ensuring that children receive a quality education.

We believe that we can do more collectively than alone. We invite you to join us and LIVE UNITED.

BENEFITS

YLS offers members many ways to get involved with United Way's work in the community, make a difference in people's lives, and become leaders in the Midlands.

Members enjoy many exclusive opportunities throughout the year, including:

- volunteer projects,
- networking,
- business opportunities,
- and invitations to signature events like the Oyster Roast and Cocktails & Conversations.

YLS programs give members the opportunity to meet other like-minded civic and business leaders and become acquainted with Columbia's prominent philanthropists.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is available to community-oriented individuals between the ages of 21-45 who give $1,000 or more to United Way.

STEP-UP PROGRAM

Step-up giving allows you to join YLS by giving $250 your first year of membership with a commitment to step up to $1,000 by the fourth year of your membership.

Suggested step-up schedule:

Year One: $250	Year Three: $750
Year Two: $500	Year Four+: $1,000
